Attorney for Barry Pepper

MEMORANDUM

On November 6, 2017, Mr. Pepper appeared on a petition to Revoke Supervised Release before the Honorable Magistrate Judge Cam Ferenbach. The violation of supervised release hearing was held in abeyance based upon two new addendums that were filed in the case that neither the defense nor prosecution had received. The Court ordered that Mr. Pepper continue on supervision and ordered his continued placement at the halfway house. The Court further ordered a status hearing for November 13, 2017 at 3:00 pm.

After the revocation hearing the Probation Officer informed undersigned counsel that the Bureau of Prisons will require an order from the Court indicating that the Court ordered Mr. Pepper to reside at the halfway house, not to exceed 90 days. The proposed order will allow the Bureau of Prisons to make available bed space for Mr. Pepper.

Mr. Pepper respectfully requests that this Court sign the attached proposed order so that the residential re-entry center will allow Mr. Pepper to reside at the halfway house for a period of up to 90 days.
